AMONG THE CHURCHES.

St. Andrew's Episcopal Church.

Services for the twenty-second Sunday after Trinity will be as follows: Holy communion, 7:30; Sunday school 9:45; Holy communion and sermon, 11 a. m.; Evening prayer and sermon, 7:30. Daily matins at 9 a. m. Wednesday 7:30 p. m. litany and instruction. The subject will be the English church up to 587, when the Pope sent St. Augustine to England. A Bible class has been formed, and it is hoped that the adult members of the parish will show by their regular attendance that they are desirous to learn more about the word of God. Choir practice Thursday night at 7:30.

Next Sunday the Rt. Rev. G. H. Kinsolving, bishop of Texas, will be in charge of the morning services. The program will be announced in the paper later, the occasion being for the purpose of instituting the Rev. W. W. Daup as rector of the parish. See Prayer Book, page 559. The bishop will arrive Saturday evening and will be entertained at the rectory. It will be a great pleasure to the rector to welcome, not only members of the parish, but the people of our city to the rectory on Saturday from 7 to 10 p.

m. to meet Bishop Kinsolving. We ought to hold in great esteem one who fills such a high position in the church of God, and we can do this best by coming to the rectory and extend the hand of fellowship to the noted ecclesiastic.

First Baptist Church.

Domestic Repartee.

Mrs. Fidgett—Are the stars shining John? Mr. Fidgett—Did you ever know the stars to do anything else than shine? (Later) Mr. Fidgett—Is the rain still coming down, Bessie? Mrs. Fidgett—Did you ever know it to do anything else than come down, John? Mr. Fidgett—Yes. I have known it to hold up.

Not Much by the Day.

Lady—What! Thirty-eight cents a dozen for eggs? Why, that's more than 3 cents for one egg. Grocer—Well, mum, you must remember that one egg is a whole day's work for one hen.—Cleveland Leader.

Revolver Needed.

John—I'll bring you a fork, sir. The Customer—What for? John—The cheese, sir. The Customer—A fork's no good. Bring a revolver.—London Sketch.

Could He?

If a man saw his sister fall into a well, why could he not rescue her? Because he could not be a brother and assist her too.

He Knew Better.

Mr. Budd—Life is full of contradictions. Mrs. Budd—And I say it isn't.

Life is a great bundle of little things.—Holmes.

E. J. Jenkins Sells a Remedy for Catarrh on That Liberal Basis.

Breathe Hyomel over the germ-rid-der membrane, and it will kill the germs, and cure catarrh.

There is no other way—you must get where the germs are before you can destroy them.

And when catarrh germs have disappeared, other things will happen; there will be no more hawking, not even in the morning; that offensive breath will disappear; there will be no more obnoxious mucus, or coughing or sneezing, or huskiness of voice, or difficulty in breathing. All these disagreeable accessories of the demon catarrh will disappear, and as they go the glow of health will return, and all the strength and energy that was formerly used in combating, in the inroads of catarrh will bring back your vitality and ambition, will make a new healthy, happy being of you in a few weeks.

E. J. Jenkins will sell you a complete Hyomel outfit for $1.00. This includes a fine inhaler, a bottle of Hyomel (pronounced Hy-o-mel), and instructions for use. Sold by leading druggists everywhere. Extra bottles 50 cents. And bear in mind, money back if Hyomel doesn't cure.

MI-ONA
Cures Indigestion

It relieves stomach misery, sour stomach, belching, and cures all stomach disease or money back. Large box of tablets 50 cents. Druggists in all towns.
